

LEARNINGWORKS LIMITED

LearningWorks believes education transforms lives and that's why they are in the business of education.

As a subsidiary of Wintec, with an independent board, LearningWorks has been in the business of education since the early 2000's.

It excels in designing and developing fit-for-purpose learning and training resources and technologies that provide an accessible and engaging experience for the user and offers flexible training solutions.

LearningWorks puts the learner in the centre of its learning and training solutions. Balanced by aligning business objectives and measurable outcomes, this ensures organisational return on investment as well as learner engagement and long-term success.

LearningWorks offers three key services with specialists and expertise in Learning Design, Learning Technologies and Training.

Its Learning Design team create engaging, learner-focused face-to-face, blended learning and online learning resources, including programme, curriculum and unit standard development, assessment, and learning and teaching resources.

Complementing this, its Learning Technologies team design, develop, support and host Learning Management Systems (LMS).

As an approved Private Training Establishment (PTE), LearningWorks also offers flexible training options for professional development, customised training, and New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA) training in the areas of soft skills, business, management, project management and adult education.

Its clients include both small and large businesses in the education, health, government and commercial sectors from within Waikato, throughout New Zealand, and in Australia.

LearningWorks has:

- 1,500 learners annually
- Clients throughout New Zealand and Australia
- Partnerships with Wintec, Industry Training Organisations, Education, Government, Health and Commercial entities
- 40 permanent employees and more than 20 contract employees

LearningWorks' mission is to grow outstanding people by delivering exceptional learning and training solutions for their partners. He whakatū kaupapa whakangungu e puta ai he tāngata pūmanawa nui ki te ao.
