1. Purpose & Scope

We are committed to ensuring a healthy and safe place of work and study and a culture of dignity and respect where people are free from bullying and harassment.

We take our legal and moral obligations in this respect seriously and will not tolerate bullying, or harassment at any level of the organisation.

This subsidiary policy and procedure(s) are part of our overarching People & Culture Policy Statement, which is managed by the People & Culture team. It is intended to align with our Student Values and Code of Conduct (currently under review) and our Values, particularly Valuing People – Whakamana i te tangata.

2. Policy Statement

This policy covers all bullying, harassment and discriminatory behaviours as defined below that happen:

- a) in the workplace during and/or outside work hours (including behaviours between colleagues/work associates in social or professional work situations, for example, during work events such as training, conferences, social work-related functions); and/or
- b) Outside the workplace and outside work hours if it is in the context of the employment relationship and/or affects or is related to the workplace (for example, conduct in social media or email or text messaging).

This policy applies to any person undertaking work, studies or duties on behalf of, or under the guidance of Wintec. This includes but is not limited to staff, students and contractors.

Wintec will endeavour to demonstrate that:

- a) Management practices and process at all levels are consistent with anti-bullying and harassment principles.
- b) We will do our best to prevent bullying and harassment by making staff and students aware of this policy.
- c) We will respond promptly appropriately and fairly to any complaint's that are brought to our attention.
- d) All employees are aware of Wintec's commitment to anti-bullying and harassment principles through the on-boarding programme, policies.

ANTI-BULLYING & HARASSMENT

5. Supporting Information

5.1. Raising a Concern

We provide a range of options and processes for people to speak up and bring concerns, allegations and complaints in relation to bullying and/or harassment; regardless of whether the person(s) are directly affected or have witnessed bullying or harassment. Issues will be resolved at the most appropriate level of intervention, subject to the rights of the Complainant and the Respondent.

Where possible, we promote the resolution of issues at the lowest appropriate level of intervention as this may sometimes be the fastest and most effective way of dealing with inappropriate behaviour, particularly for issues that are perceived as 'minor' (for example, behaviours that do not cause the Complainant to feel unsafe, or seriously harmed, threatened or intimidated).

It is recognised that persons may find it difficult or embarrassing to instigate a complaint of bullying and harassment. A support person can always be invited to be present. This also applies to staff and students when accessing counselling services.

- For students: Student Concerns & Informal Complaints policy
- See also our Protected Disclosure policy

5.2. Digital Communication and Social Media

We recognise that not all bullying or harassment takes place face-to-face. Digital communication includes any form of electronic message, including texts, emails, posts on social media, photos and recordings. Harmful digital communications include cyber-bullying and harassment, e.g.

- sending or publishing threatening or offensive material
- spreading damaging rumours
- sending or publishing sensitive personal information, e.g. embarrassing photos or videos.

We take seriously our obligations under the Harmful Digital Communications Act 2015 (HDCA) and the 10 Communication Principles outlined within. We expect all staff members and students to treat others with respect when using digital communication and social media. Staff members are expected to follow our Social Media policy and related guidelines when operating Wintec social media accounts or when referring to Wintec in their own personal social media accounts.

In the event that you receive or witness a digital communication that breaks any of the principles of the HDCA, you can raise a concern or make a complaint as per 5.1 Raising a Concern above.

5.3. Privacy

In the event that a staff member, student or any member of the public feels their privacy has been breached, but that the event does not constitute bullying or harassment, the event would be dealt with according to the provisions of the Privacy Act 1993. Any complaint to Wintec should be made via those same complaints processes for students and staff as listed in subsection 5.2 above. You can also read our Privacy & Personal Information policy for more information.

9. Key Definitions & Glossary

People and Culture team (P&C)	Wintec's People and Culture team support managers and staff with queries to this policy.
Bullying	In the absence of a statutory definition for bullying, this definition is taken from the WorkSafe NZ guidelines. Bullying does not include fair management or justified performance management or disciplinary process. Repeated and unreasonable behaviour towards a worker or a group of workers that can lead to physical or psychological harm. A single incident is generally not considered bullying but can escalate if ignored and may be conduct, warranting discipline for a reason other than bullying. Bullying does not include (the following list of examples, this is not intended to be exhaustive): <ol style="list-style-type: none">one-off or occasional instances of forgetfulness, rudeness or tactlessness, differences in opinion or personality clashes;reasonable behaviour and/or performance management, including setting high performance standards, constructive feedback and legitimate advice or peer reviews;Insistence on lawful and reasonable work instructions to be carried out;Lawful and reasonable disciplinary action.
Repeated Behaviour	Persistent (i.e. occurring more than once) behaviour and can involve a range of actions over time.
Unreasonable Behaviour	Actions that a reasonable person in the same or similar circumstances would see as unreasonable, including victimising, humiliating, intimidating, or threatening a person (bullying may also include harassment and/or discrimination or violence).
Sexual Harassment	Unwelcomed or offensive behaviour of a sexual nature that may be communicated person to person, electronically, pictorially or socially. Unwelcome means that the behaviour is not solicited or invited or consented to and is regarded by the other person as undesirable or offensive at the time. Sexual harassment can be subtle, dependent on context and may entail different cultural understandings of what is considered inappropriate behaviour. It can include, but is not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">the direct or indirect request for sexual intercourse,contact (e.g. touching, hugging, encroaching on someone's personal space),kissing, staring or leering, stalking, unwanted invitations to go out on dates,
