Awards and Statements of Achievement

1. Purpose and Scope

The conferment of awards and issuing of statements of achievement/completion is governed by Council in accordance with legislative requirements.

This policy relates to the types of awards and statements Wintec can confer/issue, the specific awards that Wintec currently confer and the specific requirements of the award parchment.

The scope of this policy includes Council, Academic Board and all staff involved in the conferment of awards and issuing of statements of achievement/completion.

2. Policy Statement

Wintec has the ability to confer awards approved and/or accredited by the New Zealand Qualifications Authority; and issue statements of achievement or completion. Through this policy Wintec will:

- Be clear on the types of programmes/qualifications that Wintec delivers that lead to awards
- Be clear on the types of programmes that Wintec delivers to lead to statements of achievement/completion
- Have a current statute detailing all awards that Wintec can confer
- Have a current list of New Zealand and National qualifications that Wintec deliver
- Be clear on the parchment requirements for each type of award
