SAFETY AND WELLBEING

1. Purpose and Scope

Wintec works towards a safe, sustainable, innovative safety and wellbeing culture that improves the safety and wellbeing of the Wintec community and those who interact or engage with our environment and the services we provide.

The policy has been developed to reduce the number and seriousness of health and safety incidents and that everyone recognises their responsibility and their role in safety and wellbeing. We strive to lead the sector in safety and wellbeing best practices, through the engagement of a strong safety and wellbeing culture.

We will create a learning environment and organisational culture that enhances the health, wellbeing and sustainability of our community and enables people to achieve their full potential.

This policy applies to all staff, contractors, consultants or any other person lawfully on Wintec premises or engaging in work or representing on behalf of Wintec. International jurisdictions controlled by other authorities Wintec staff will need to follow this policy in their accountabilities to Wintec and the requirements of the country in which they are operating.

2. Policy Statement

- Wintec is committed to ensuring that its safety and wellbeing practices reflect good practice. We commit to governance and compliance systems and make safety and wellbeing a core part of every activity ensure everyone goes home healthy and safe today and every day.

It is the policy of Wintec, so far as is reasonably practicable, to protect the safety and wellbeing of all workers, students and people on site and representing Wintec elsewhere; and to act in compliance with our legal obligations, including New Zealand standards and relevant codes of practice.

We believe that:

- Zero harm—cause no harm through action or inaction to
- Effective safety and wellbeing practice supports our values driven culture.
- Engagement in safety and wellbeing is beneficial to all involved with Wintec

Our leaders affirm that safety and wellbeing legislation establishes a minimum requirement and demonstrate a willingness to exceed these in the delivery of strategies, initiatives and processes.

Our safety culture will be built on trust, with a no blame approach to managing safety and wellbeing. Safety is everyone's responsibility and an integral part of what we do.

We will provide an environment that recognises wellbeing is created and lived by people within the settings of their everyday life; where they learn, work, and play.

POLICY

Name: [Policy Name]

Number: [XYZ – 000]

Our culture engages with and delivers leading health and safety practices

We will promote and ensure industry relevant competencies and capabilities in order to deliver best practice which will integrate safety and wellbeing processes.

We will ensure health and safety compliance while offering a work environment which supports creativity and innovation.

To ensure a safe and health working and learning environment we will:

- Maintain and continually improve safety and wellbeing management systems and processes.
- Take all reasonably practicable steps to ensure the safety and wellbeing of staff, students, contractors and others at Wintec, by proactively identifying and managing hazards, risk and unsafe behaviours.
- Evaluate and recognise the safety and wellbeing performance of staff, students and contractors.
- Maintain a commitment to consult with and actively promote participation and engagement by all members of the Wintec community and their representatives, including unions, in developing skills, knowledge and resources to maintain a healthy and safe environment.
- Provide supportive return to work/study rehabilitation practices.
- Design, construct and operate campus facilities so they protect people and property.
- Comply with relevant legislation, regulations, codes of practice and industry standards.
- Where Wintec engages another organisation to work at or for Wintec, consult and coordinate with the organisation in relation to safety and wellbeing and provide them with this Policy.
- Establish safety and wellbeing objectives which will be reviewed each year through the Safety and Wellbeing strategy and My Plan processes.
- Require accurate reporting, notification and timely investigation of all injuries and incidents.
- Provide training and information necessary to ensuring competency in safety and wellbeing.
