Key Facts

Innsbruck, Austria

- Area: 104.91 km<sup>2</sup>
- Population: 130,894

Innsbruck, capital of Austria's western state of Tyrol, is a city in the Alps that's long been a destination for winter sports. Innsbruck is also known for its Imperial and modern architecture. The Nordkette funicular (a gondola), climbs up to 2,256m from the city center for skiing in winter and hiking or mountaineering in warmer months. Temperatures range from -10°C in winter up to 25 °C in summer.

Austrian German is the official language but English is widely spoken and understood.

The University

The Management Center Innsbruck is located in the heart of Innsbruck, the provincial capital of the Tyrol (West Austria). Innsbruck is an Olympic as well as a student city with a rich tradition of learning and academic excellence.

Internationalisation is one of the salient pillars of MCI. Its international orientation is mirrored in its diverse student and staff population; numerous partner universities; international curriculum at undergraduate and post-graduate level; international projects and research and international accreditation such as AACSB, FIBAA.

MCI has around 3,300 students of which 50% are international students. In addition, around 300 incoming students from our 250 partner universities join MCI every year. A number that is significantly increasing, and speaks volumes

Study

MCI offers bachelors' and masters' courses as well as postgraduate training programs. The course contents target all levels of personal development and include state-of-the-art knowledge relevant to both business, engineering and society. Quality teaching with focus on theory and practice; small groups of students; interactive teaching and learning as well as international student and staff population predominantly constitute its academic strengths.

All your classes will be taught in English
