

Bachelor of Midwifery Information Session

Haere mai, a special welcome from the Bachelor of Midwifery programme

You are invited to attend a 'meet and greet' session for conditional and unconditional applicants to our Bachelor of Midwifery programme.

Come and find out more about the structure of the degree programme and have all your questions answered.

We encourage you to bring whānau and friends with you, so they will understand how best to support you with our study programme.

You will most likely meet current students sharing their experience with our midwifery degree programme. Current students have found these sessions really helped them to get prepared for their studies.

We look forward to seeing you at one of the sessions below:
