

Text Book List for Bachelor of Physiotherapy

There are no required text books for this programme, however we strongly recommend that you have access to the recommended textbooks. If you would like to buy some of the recommended textbooks these may cost up to $850 (new) for the first year.

You will be required to purchase Kura Cloud, which provides you with access to an online learning platform used for Anatomy and Physiology.

Module	HSPT501 Te Hīhiri	HSPT502 Assessment and Physical Evaluation	HSPT503 Applied Musculoskeletal Anatomy	HSPT504 Anatomy and Physiology A	HSPT505 Professional and Interprofessional Practice	HSPT506 Anatomy and Physiology B	HSPT507 Promoting Health and Wellness	HSPT508 Evaluation and Intervention for Physical Dysfunction
Textbook/s	None required	Clarkson (2013). Musculoskeletal assessment: joint motion and muscle testing.	Drake, R (2017). Gray's Anatomy for Students  Moore, K (2018). Clinically orientated anatomy.	Marieb, E (any year/edition). Human Anatomy and Physiology, Global Edition.  NB: not Essentials of Human Anatomy and Physiology	None required	Marieb, E (any year/edition). Human Anatomy and Physiology, Global Edition.  NB: not Essentials of Human Anatomy and Physiology	McMurray, A & Clendon, J. (2015). Community health and wellness: primary health care in practice.  Signal, L., & Ratima, M. M. (2015). Promoting Health in Aotearoa NZ. University Press.	Shumway- Cook, A. & Woollacott, M. (2016). Motor control: theory and practical applications (5th ed.)
Other Items				Kura Cloud access ($65.00 per year)  Lab coats (will be provided)				